Fermin Lasuen Padres Beat South High Spartans 40 to 0

By GLENN FISHER
The Fermin Lasuen Padres walloped the South High Spartans 40-0.

The Padres powerful line opened huge gaps in the Spartan defense, while the Spartan line was humbled by the Padres defense.

Lasuen started on their first series of downs and never let up. After taking the kickoff the Padres stormed 62 yards in two plays. On the first play from whipped a pass to Dennis Trani who rambled to the South 34. Haven Moses then galloped the remaining 34 yards for the score. Early in the second quarter the Padres scored again as they racked up 59 yards in seven plays. Moses scored his second touchdown of the night with a one yard plunge. The Padres led at halftime 13-0.

In the second half the Padres offense really began to generate. The Padres scored twice within seven plays. After a Spartan punt put the Padres on their own 36 yard line, Bob Gonzales streaked 64 yards through the middle of the Spartan line for a touchdown. Frank Mattera converted and it was 20-0 Padres.

Three play later the Padres recovered a Spartan fumble on the South 26. Kalooper rolled out, then scrambled down the sideline for a 26 yard touchdown jaunt. Mattera's conversion made it 27-0.

The Padres scored twice more in the fourth quarter. Gonzales drove over from the two yard line to complete a 65 yard drive, and the second was a six yard tackle eligible pass play from Trani to John Churchill. Mattera added the conversion to notch a 40-0 win for the Padres.
